

REPUBLICANS HOLD BIG ROUND-UP AT STATE FAIRANDREW RUSSEL ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR GOVERNOR

Mayor Thompson States He is A Candidate to Succeed Roy O. West—Criticises West and Deneen—Declares Sherman Will Have No Opposition in Illinois for Republican Nomination for President.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 22.—Only Two Declare Themselves. William Hale Thompson, mayor of Chicago, made formal announcement of his candidacy to succeed Roy O. West, as Republican national committeeman here today, at a meeting of Republicans at the state fair. Mayor Thompson remarked also that Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman would have no opposition in this state for the Republican presidential nomination.

Thompson followed Center of Stage. Followers of Mayor Thompson, wearing cowboy hats, Thompson Republican Club badges and carrying bamboo canes, held the center of the stage here all day and night. Not content with three parades during the day they staged another tonight in order to escort their leader to the Sangamon county court house where he made a speech in what was the hall of representatives in that structure was the state house and Lincoln was a member of the assembly.

Criticises West and Deneen. In his speech tonight Thompson repeated his announcement of earlier in the day that he was a candidate to succeed Roy O. West and criticised West and former Governor Deneen for the way in which they conducted party affairs in recent years.

Roy O. West as National committeeman, had the distribution of the funds provided for making a campaign in Illinois in behalf of the Republican candidates for president, said Thompson. "Instead of using those funds to advance the cause of the Republican party generally, and to aid in the election of its candidate for president, he caused them to be used to aid Governor Deneen in his candidacy for governor and in Cook county to aid some of the candidates on the county ticket."

Continuing, Thompson said: "I charge that John F. Devine, who was chairman of the Cook county Republican central committee, openly stated in a meeting of the committee that: 'the workers should not pay any attention to the Republican candidates for president, but use their efforts wholly for the election of the governor and the candidates for county offices on the Republican ticket.'"

Other Republican leaders, of great and small importance were here.

Deneen Greets Acquaintances. Former Governor Charles Deneen spent most of the day at one of the hotels, standing in the lobby greeting acquaintances. He refused to commit himself concerning any of the numerous Republican candidates for governor.

At another hotel where most of the Democrats were making their headquarters, Roger Sullivan was holding many conferences with downstate Democrats. Senator Jas. Hamilton Lewis arrived tonight and said he planned to help celebrate Democratic Day here tomorrow at the state fair.

Chicago Man Falls Dead. The excitement proved too much for James Cozzins, superintendent of one of Swift and company's plants in Chicago, and he dropped out of the line of march of one of three Thompson men's parades and fell dead in front of an undertaking establishment.

Buttons bearing the legend, "We're for Sherman", were worn by scores of Springfield republicans who declared they were the original "Sherman for president" men.

Russel Announces Candidacy. State Treasurer Andrew Russel of Jacksonville was the second Republican to announce formally his candidacy for governor. "I shall be a candidate" said Mr. Russel today. Col. Frank Smith of Dwight was the first Republican to announce his candidacy.

Six special trains arrived here this morning, laden with Republican politicians, and added their charge to the swarm of Republicans and Democrats who have been filling rooms in the local hotels for the last three days.

Four of the special trains were from Chicago and bore two thousand supporters of Col. Frank O. Lowden's candidacy for governor.

Fully another thousand arrived on two trains from Dwight, Bloomington, Pontiac and other points, wearing buttons and waving banners indicating their faith in Col. Frank L. Smith of Dwight as a candidate for governor.

SIX DIE IN NEW YORK
DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

BLAST CAUSES CAVE-IN OF ENTIRE BLOCK OF SUBWAY

Two of the Dead Were Passengers on a Trolley Which Plunged Into the Excavation—Four Other Dead Are Laborers Engaged in Subway Work.

New York, Sept. 22.—Although rapid progress was made in the task of uncovering the section of the seventh avenue subway excavation, wrecked by a dynamite blast today, no more bodies were recovered and the death list late tonight remained at six.

Two of the dead were passengers on a trolley which plunged into the excavation when the blast destroyed the temporary shoring for a block between twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth streets. They were Louis Krugman, 22, and Mrs. Martin V. Newton, 65 years old, a woman who watched the removal of the injured to an improvised hospital and died later from shock and hysteria. The four other dead were laborers engaged in subway work. Comparatively few of the 100 passengers who went down with the car sustained serious injuries. Tonight four distinct investigations were under way while the work of clearing the wreckage proceeded. How the accident happened has not been officially determined beyond the fact that the blast ripped out the underpinning in the block, causing it to cave-in. In an effort to fix responsibility the police search turned to August Newcombe, known also as August Midnight, the blaster, who is missing. He is wanted on a charge of homicide.

The contractors in charge of the subway work declared that their rules required that every man in the excavation within 200 feet of the point where the blast is exploded, must leave and that ample warning must be given in order to stop all traffic. Examination of the trolley car showed its wheels were locked as it struck after its fall. The motor man said he received a signal to stop when in the middle of the block.

District Attorney Perkins, in charge of one end of the inquiry, tonight engaged a number of engineers to make an examination and upon the nature of their report will depend, he said, the question of an action for criminal negligence.

Heading the Lowden boomers who arrived this morning was Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, Fred Lundin, who has assumed the management of the Chicago end of Con. Lowden's campaign also was in the party, as was Former Attorney General William H. Stead of Ottawa, downstate manager for Lowden. He declined to admit he would support any of the candidates in the lists.

Distribute Cards and Souvenirs. Three avowed Republican candidates for secretary of state arrived yesterday and were busy this morning distributing cards and souvenirs advertising their ambitions. They were: James W. Gullett, of Elizabethton, for many years head of the legal department in the office of the secretary of state; L. L. Emmerson of Mt. Vernon, a member of the state central committee, and Dr. J. F. Wheeler of Springfield, sheriff of Sangamon county.

The official announcement was made here today of the candidacy of State Senator Richard Barr of Joliet for the office of attorney general. During the last part of the legislative session Senator Barr employed a "campaign" manager to further his aspirations to become governor.

Deneen Hears of Charges. Chicago, Sept. 22.—Charles S. Deneen left Springfield today before the speech of William Hale Thompson had been made public. The former governor was met at the train by reporters who conveyed the substance of the mayor's charges.

The former governor said the mayor and those with whom he had surrounded himself could not forgive for his part in having a primary law enacted which would give to party voters the right to nominate their ticket.

"If it be treason to the party and the public to have earned the opposition of the bi-partisan combination which disgraced our state in the eyes of the nation," he said, "the mayor undoubtedly is entitled to make the most of it."

Deneen rebuffed the campaigns he had made as a gubernatorial candidate and cited his speeches and acts as proof that he had always supported the entire Republican ticket.

MOCKIN BEFORE PAROLE BOARD. Leavenworth, Kans., Sept. 22.—Torbert S. Mockin of Detroit, former secretary of the Iron Workers Union, convicted in the dynamite conspiracy cases, was among the two hundred prisoners who appeared before the federal parole board when it convened today at the United States penitentiary here today.

MARSHAL SHOTS NEGRO. West Liberty, Ia., Sept. 22.—Robert Jackson, a negro, 35, is near death today from a wound inflicted by a bullet from the revolver of Deputy Marshal Charles Baumgartner after the negro had fired four shots into a crowd of paving workmen and one shot at Baumgartner here yesterday. Jackson had quarreled with some of the other negro workmen.

VETERANS ATTEND FAIR. Springfield, Ill., Sept. 22.—In addition to being Republican day this was "Old Soldiers' day" at the state fair and scores of veterans of the Civil war from all parts of the state were admitted to the grounds free.

Governor Dunne welcomed the old soldiers and later roop D. of the First cavalry, mounted on livery horses, drilled for their entertainment.

GIRL GIVES JOHN D.,
LESSON IN FINANCE

Miner's Twelve Year Old Daughter Tells Financier
How to Run a Bank

GIVE "FIRST AID" EXHIBIT

Boys of Sopris, Colo., Public School Imitate First Aid
Teams Maintained in Mines

INSPECTS MINERS' HOUSES

TRINIDAD, Colo., Sept. 22.—A twelve year old girl today told John D. Rockefeller how to deal in stocks and bonds, how to run a bank and how to finance a corporation that would pay a 40 cent annual dividend on a ten cent block of common stock. It was at Sopris, where Mr. Rockefeller, in the course of his examination of Colorado Fuel & Iron company property, stopped long enough to visit the public school. In the highest grade of the school the teacher told Standard Oil magnate that the pupils had established a bank and a store in which school supplies were sold.

"Really," said Mr. Rockefeller, with the delight of a boy at a county fair: "I should like to know something more about this system of high finance."

"Blanche," said the teacher, "will you explain it to Mr. Rockefeller?"

Shakes Hands Calmly. Then Blanche McArthur, daughter of a coal digger, walked to the front of the room, shook hands calmly with Mr. Rockefeller and gravely began her financial lesson.

"You see," she began, "I am cashier of the bank. We already have five dollars on deposit, all brought by the children."

"Five dollars!" exclaimed Mr. Rockefeller, "wonderful!"

"We have part of this loaned out to pupils—on good security of course. We are looking around for a permanent investment for the rest of our money."

Blanche then branched off into a discussion of stocks and bonds.

Mr. Rockefeller listened gravely as the child detailed the elements which make bond issues safe or unsafe.

"We have a store, too," Mr. Rockefeller said. "It was formed by some of our boys and girls, who each subscribed ten cents to the capital stock. We buy school supplies, pencils and tablets—at wholesale and sell them to the pupils. Last year the store paid between thirty and forty cents dividend on each ten cents in stock. Don't you think that was doing pretty well, Mr. Rockefeller?"

Mr. Rockefeller murmured an assent, apparently overwhelmed at this exhibition of the loftiest of high finance.

Give Exhibit of "First Aid" Work. Before receiving his lecture in economics, Mr. Rockefeller had been entertained by an exhibition of "first aid" work staged by some boys of the school. In imitation of the regular first aid teams maintained in the Southern Colorado mines, the boys, coached by their teachers and the camp physician, have organized a team and give frequent drills, one of their number being selected as the "patient."

At Sopris, also, Mr. Rockefeller inspected a clump of miners' houses which the Colorado Fuel & Iron company has recently made arrangements to buy and tear down. The houses, which stand on ground belonging to the company, were built thirty years ago by the first miners, mostly Italians employed when the mine was opened. Unsightly and unsanitary, they form a strange, old, worn contrast to the newer homes of most of the employees.

"But these people have stuck to those old houses, in spite of everything we could do," explained Mr. Rockefeller. "They pay only a nominal rent for the land, say a dollar a year, and they have steadfastly refused to move to better quarters."

"Finally the company has made arrangements to buy the houses outright, for several thousand dollars and we are erecting new, sanitary cottages on the hillside near the old settlement."

"I'm afraid even now we may have trouble getting some of the old timers to take their new quarters when we get them built."

Party Motors To Morley. Leaving Sopris the party motored to Morley, one of the newest mining camps in the district. Here the cottages are practically all of cement construction and the company store stands on the brow of a steep bluff built in Spanish mission style.

Returning to Trinidad from Morley, Mr. Rockefeller stopped for a brief visit at Starkville. The day's work practically completed the round of Colorado Fuel & Iron company camps in Las Animas county.

WILSON AND BRYAN
MEET AT WHITE HOUSE

FORMER SECRETARY SOUGHT INTER-VIEW TO "PAY RESPECTS"

Confer in Green Room for Nearly an Hour—Bryan Declines to Reveal What the President Said—Visita Attracts Wide Attention.

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Wilson, and former Secretary Bryan met at the white house today for the first time since the latter resigned from the cabinet three months ago. Mr. Bryan sought the interview "to pay respects."

For nearly an hour the two were alone together in the green room and they parted smiling, what the president said, Mr. Bryan declined to reveal, nor would he intimate what subjects he, himself had broached. The white house gave out no information beyond the statement that there had been a general talk, pleasant and cordial. Believe Both Subjects Were Touched.

From the fact that Mr. Bryan is contemplating a trip to Europe in the interest of the peace and from pressed to large expenditures for national defense, official Washington assumes he had touched on both subjects in his conversation with the president. It is understood, however, that the president is not disposed to approve the idea of a trip to Europe and that he has not yet formed his own conclusions as to the national defense program.

Mr. Bryan told friends later that he himself was undecided as to whether or not he would go to Europe and that he had speaking engagements up to November 1st, so that it was unlikely he would reach a decision before then.

Attracts Wide Attention. Mr. Bryan's visit to the white house attracted wide attention. In an electric automobile which he drove himself, he appeared at noon. A few minutes before Secretary Daniels had presented Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, to the president. Later in the day Mr. Ford and Mr. Bryan conferred at the latter's home concerning the forwarding of the peace movement as against national preparedness.

After Mr. Bryan left the white house a score of camera and moving picture photographers surrounded him while he posed.

ANGLO-FRENCH COMMISSION
HOLDS DAY AND NIGHT SESSION

Absorbing Matters Discussed at Conference Are Not Disclosed—Apparently Their Nature Is Unknown to American Bankers.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Anglo-French financial commission which is here to establish a huge credit for Great Britain and France was in continuous session today from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. After a recess for dinner, the commission re-assembled with every indication that the meeting would last until after midnight.

The absorbing matters discussed in the all day and all night conference were not disclosed. Apparently their nature was unknown to the American bankers who have been conferring with the commission during the past ten days or so.

Early in the day it became established that the anticipated announcement of the success of the commission's work here in raising a credit loan of from $600,000,000 to $800,000,000 would not be forthcoming today, was not expected tomorrow would be received with surprise if issued as early as Friday and might not be made till next week.

American bankers who went to bed last night professing conviction that the commission's success would be announced today were not so confident of a speedy announcement when they reached the financial section this morning.

OUTLINE ENGLAND'S PLANS FOR AIDING EFFORTS OF HER MERCHANTS

Announcements of British Board of Trade are Received by Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce at Washington.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Great Britain's plans for furthering the efforts of her merchants to establish themselves in world markets from which the British war fleets are barring the once aggressive German and Austrian exporters, are outlined in announcements by the British board of trade received here today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

Commercial diplomatic representatives of Great Britain abroad, the announcement says, will place the disposal of British merchants all available information as to securing customers formerly supplied by German and Austrian firms. The board of trade gives notice of the organization of a confidential information service through its commercial intelligence bureau to supply firms desiring to enter the foreign trade with "information as to opportunities for the extension abroad of these branches of trade in which they are especially interested."

MINER FALLS TO DEATH.

Centerville, Ia., Sept. 22.—W. T. Sanders, 40 years old, the Steeply mine, fell 150 feet into the shaft today and was killed instantly. Sanders was leaning over the shaft to call to a man at the bottom when he lost his balance. He was 46 years of age and leaves a wife and six children.

BULGARIA TO MAINTAIN ARMED NEUTRALITY

PREMIER ANNOUNCES SIGNING OF CONVENTION WITH TURKEY

Well Informed Quarters in Berlin Entertain Possibility of Greece, Roumania and Bulgaria Reaching An Agreement—Russ Retreat From Vilna Continues.

London, Sept. 22.—M. Radoslavoff, the Bulgarian premier, has announced to his supporters the signing of a convention with Turkey for the future maintenance of armed neutrality on the part of Bulgaria, says The Times correspondent at Sofia in a dispatch printed this morning.

Berlin, via London, Sept. 22.—As far as can be learned in authoritative quarters here, no word has been received in Berlin of a mobilization by either Greece or Roumania, nor are there any indications that Bulgaria's action will necessarily lead to a general outbreak in the Balkans. The belief is expressed in well informed quarters that Roumania will at least remain quiet and the possibility of Greece, Roumania and Bulgaria reaching an agreement is entertained.

A dispatch to the Zeitung Am Mittag from Vienna, gives information from Bulgarian sources tending to confirm this. It says the situation in the Balkans is clearing satisfactorily and that Bulgaria's attitude is not without effect on the other Balkan states.

The despatch adds that steps toward a general re-approchement between the Balkan states is under way with good prospects of success.

To word has yet reached Berlin of an Austro-German crossing into Serbia but bombardment by the Teutonic allies continues along the Serbian front from MacVa to Semendria.

Strikes With Dramatic Suddenness. London, Sept. 22.—A war move that may solve the riddle of the Balkans-Bulgaria's mobilization has struck London with dramatic suddenness.

The afternoon newspapers however, refrained from editorial comment and neutral readers of these publications, except for drawing their own conclusion from large type heads and such captions as Balkan sensation would be none the wiser as to whether England regarded the development as a preliminary victory for the central powers or merely another overnight turn of the Greco-Serbian-Bulgarian negotiations. The consensus of opinion was that although the Bulgarian army is now on the move Bulgaria has not yet cast her lot with one side or the other, but is, as her minister here expressed it, still neutral, still waiting, but armed.

The first bulletin announcing Bulgaria's mobilization reached London by way of New York. It was quickly followed by a stream of telegrams from the European capitals to the effect that mobilization partial or general had been ordered at Sofia, that Bulgarian cavalry had taken the field and that Bulgars of fighting age were hurrying home.

Subsequently came the news of the excitement at Athens and of the conference of the king with political leaders. But from Sofia itself the British press received no details.

There is general activity of the Austro-German forces along the Serbian frontier.

A semi-official despatch from Nish repudiates reports that Serbia has been asked in effect to remain quiescent while the Austro-Germans conduct their campaign southwards. The developments in Bulgaria threw into comparative obscurity the continued Russian retreat from Vilna, but with the exception of the northern tip of the Polish front where the Russians are on the offensive near Friedrichstadt, the Germans claim progress throughout mid-Poland as far south as Ostrowa, which they have captured. The greater numbers of prisoners taken at any point, however, did not exceed 2,000, which would seem to indicate that the attempt to complete the collapse around the retreating Russians has proven unsuccessful.

DEATH LOWERS GOVERNMENT'S CIVIL WAR PENSION ROLL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Death decreased the government civil war pension roll nearly ten per cent during the last fiscal year, according to the annual report of Commissioner of Pension Saltzgaber, made public today. A total of 396,370 Union veterans remained on the roll July 1st, 33,255 less than a year ago. Payments to Civil War pensioners during the year totalled $156,668,771, compared with $172,417,546 in 1914.

Available records of the pension office show the total death toll since the close of the war has been 1,816,935. In that period the federal government has paid to veterans, their widows and children, $4,614,643,267.

DECLARE QUARANTINE
AGAINST NORTHERN ILLINOIS

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—The state livestock sanitary board tonight announced that it had declared a quarantine because of foot and mouth disease against Chicago and the northern part of Illinois. The quarantines covers cattle sheep and swine and will prevent any from being shipped into the state from Helena.

That section even for immediate slaughter.

U. S. AWAITS FORMAL
WORD FROM VIENNA

To Make No Effort to Secure Safe Conduct
Until Austria Replies

DUMBA GIVES NOTICE

Inform State Department His Government Has Recalled
Him Home on Leave

ANSWER IS EXPECTED SOON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The American government will make no effort to secure safe conduct from the United States of Dr. Constant Dumba, Austro-Hungarian ambassador here until the Vienna government has replied to the request that the ambassador be recalled. This was stated on high authority tonight.

Dr. Dumba himself telegraphed Assistant Secretary Phillips of the department from Lenox, Mass., today, giving notice that his government had recalled him home on leave and asking that the American government arrange for his safe conduct to Vienna. He added that he planned to sail on Sept. 28th. The message was addressed to Mr. Phillips without official title, the ambassador apparently treating his official status as ended.

Polk Confers With Wilson. Acting Secretary Polk conferred with President Wilson tonight on the Dumba incident and other international questions. Later it became known that the United States would await formal word from the Austro-Hungarian foreign office before acting on Dr. Dumba's request. A reply from Vienna is expected within the next few days to the note asking that Dr. Dumba be withdrawn from Washington in consequence of a letter he wrote to his foreign minister outlining plans for disturbances in American munitions plants.

Whether the American government will be satisfied if Vienna carries out Dr. Dumba's requests and gives notice that he is to be withdrawn "on leave" was not disclosed tonight and will not be finally determined until it is seen what form the Austro-Hungarian reply takes.

Believes Dumba Will Not Return. Inasmuch as dispatches from Vienna have indicated that the government there has already chosen a temporary successor to Dr. Dumba, it is taken for granted here that no attempt will be made to send the latter back here, whichever may be the manner of his going. The delay in receiving a reply to the Dumba note is believed by officials to be due to difficulty in communicating between Washington and Vienna.

Several messages received recently from Ambassador Penfield have been nearly a week in reaching Washington.

The president was still considering tonight what action, if any, to take in regard to Captain Franz Van Papan, German military attaché here, Alexander Nuber von Pereked, Austro-Hungarian consul general in New York and other Austro-Hungarian and German officials involved in the Dumba incident. Photographic copies of more of the letters taken from James F. Archibald in London will be awaited before final action is taken.

Refer Letter to Translators. A letter in German, written by Captain Von Papan, in which occurred a phrase which has been translated "these idiotic Yankees" was referred to translators at the state department today to determine the exact meaning of the German words.

Most of the Archibald letters already received here were sent to the department of justice by the state department. They will be examined by Assistant Attorney General Warren to determine whether action can be taken against Archibald and others not having diplomatic status involved in the case.

Ed Howe famous as a newspaper paragrapher says "When a thing is wrong a man should know it as soon as his wife." Judged by the vote totals here Tuesday Jacksonville men have not yet acquired this vision as completely as have their wives.

It is a sad commentary upon the people of the state that six thousand have sent requests to the Sheriff of Jackson county asking permission to be present when Deberry the negro who murdered Mrs. James H. Martin of Murphysboro is hanged. The requests it is said have come from all over the state. The brutality of the crime accounts in some measure for the widespread desire to see Deberry pay the penalty but nevertheless an execution witnessed by a many people would result in a vast amount of injury to minds and morals.

The prevalence of typhoid fever in a great many localities has given additional favor to vaccination for this disease. According to a statement recently issued by the U. S. public health service which is printed elsewhere, it is estimated that this year the number of persons vaccinated for typhoid will be 300,000, a total which is three times as large as the record for 1914. Anti-typhoid vaccination is a comparatively simple matter, and it is certainly no wonder that the number of persons who are availing themselves of this opportunity for immunity from the disease is growing so steadily. It took quite a long period for the people to become thoroughly familiar with the fact that vaccination would prevent smallpox, but now the person who does not believe in it is rare indeed. The experiments and results from typhoid vaccination have been such that the theory has been thoroughly proven, and certainly this knowledge represents a wonderful advance in the science of medicine, since humanity can by this simple measure be spared from that disease, both noxious and dangerous.

America: The World's Breadmaker.
Over 35,000,000 bushels of grain were delivered last week at primary centers for transportation. This smashed all previous records for any week. The movement of grain from this country toward Europe has recently been phenomenal, and now comes the news from Argentina that that republic has 140,000,000 bushels of wheat to export.

Peaceful Americans are feeding the belligerents of Europe. It is, moreover, one of the strange needs of nature that it compensates for its own and also human losses. The United States has just harvested the largest surplus of wheat for export in its history.

Coupled with Argentina's supply, this surplus will alleviate the hunger of war-mad Europe, where millions of men have been dragged from the plow to become the prey of bullets. The ill wind which blows death from a hundred battle fields carries good fortune to our American farmers. Without the war and this extra demand for wheat from Europe, our 900,000,000 bushel harvest would have brought the price to its lowest point in a generation.

Not only has the war made an exceptionally high price for wheat, but it has stimulated the planting of an extra large acreage for next year. Fortunately, indeed, for the whole human race that the American breadmaker sticks to his job and works off universal famine.

The Republican Roundup.

The Republican powwow at Springfield yesterday was not as fruitful in definite announcement of candidates as had been expected. Thus far Col. Smith of Dwight is the only candidate who has made an extended announcement of his desire for the gubernatorial nomination although Mr. Russell stated yesterday that he will be a candidate.

The greatest surprise, was that Col. Lowden did not come out into the open with his announcement. The Lowden boosters were numerous and enthusiastic but the colonel himself would not make an unequivocal statement. Party strife in Cook county is no doubt the cause for there are certain leaders there who will be for Lowden only on condition that he does not have the support of Mayor Thompson. The charges made against Roy West and Ex-Gov. Deeney by the mayor in announcing his candidacy as member of the National Republican committee yesterday will not serve to increase the friendly feeling.

Altogether it seems that a hand to hand conflict is about to be waged for supremacy in Cook county. But this strife is nothing new in political history for control in Chicago is something war having. Down state the party leaders great concern is that the conflict be kept within such bounds that no great injury is done the ticket when election day comes. The only hope that democracy has in the next Illinois election is a divided Republican party. The Republican leaders know that and with the lesson of 1912 still in memory are not likely to seriously jeopardize their interests.

Women Know Own Minds.

It was a gratifying thing that the result of the election Tuesday was so decisive. With such a very heavy majority expressing themselves as satisfied with present conditions and prospects, stability is given the present administration and a period of progress and advancement can be expected. It is gratifying too, that a majority of both men and women expressed themselves as opposed to a return to the old system of government. It had been quite frequently predicted that many men were in favor of the return and who were saying nothing, but would vote that way on election day. Evidently this surmise was incorrect, or else the men came to a better understanding of the real situation before election day arrived.

The very heavy majority of women against the change—almost four to one—indicates very clearly what the women thought of the proposition. They were imbued with the idea that a continuance of the present administration was consistent with those principles that they believed should be paramount in city affairs. The vote indicated also that women think for themselves along civic lines and vote independently of their male friends or relatives. Their declaration to support the present form was the result partially of a well organized effort but was in large measure due also to the sober thought of the womenfolk. A great many of them considered the whole question involved without prejudice, and after studying the situation and its meaning, determined that for them the right thing to do was to vote against a change which they rightfully thought would be a backward step and not for the good of the community.

Physical Fear, New War Disease.

Dr. Morton Prince of Boston, the famous psychologist and neurologist, who has just returned from the European battlefields, declares that an unusual form of mental disease has been developed by the modern warfare of big guns. He was granted unusual facilities by France and England to study the effect of war upon the nervous system. The new mental disease is the result of the fear produced by the tremendous explosion of the shells. It is very much like the effect upon the nerves noticed after an earthquake or a railway collision. Only the nervous type are affected by the disease. Although their number is great, it is relatively small among the millions engaged in the war. Many men have been rendered dumb, others deaf, blind or unable to walk, when an examination shows that they have received no wound of any kind. Others remember nothing after a heavy explosion. Mental confusion and terrible dreams are also symptoms of the fear disease. The victim is a chronic state of fear, says Dr. Prince, fear that is altogether different from the ordinary variety. The scientific name of the new war disease is traumatic psychosis. The lack of knowledge of the disease caused many tragedies. Men of military men will stand by charge, because of an attack of mental confusion and this intense pathological fear. Some of these men were court-martialed and shot, before the prevalence of the disease was discovered.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Pittsburgh — Although women rarely figure in the transactions of the steel market, especially where governments are concerned, Mme. Dorece Millerand, an accredited agent of the French government has placed some enormous orders here. She closed a deal with a local steel company for 50,000 tons of steel billets, the kind used in the making of high velocity projectiles. She was seeking to buy 100,000 tons more of the same material but found the local mills unable to handle her big order. The appearance of Mme. Millerand created a stir in the steel trade. A beautiful and refined lady, she talked steel with a full knowledge of the industry and excellent acquaintance with business methods.

Seattle — Miss Ethel Hunley Caldwell, formerly of Oakland, Calif., has become dean of women at the University of Washington. Her work in the public schools of Oakland attracted the attention of prominent educators, including Dr. Henry Suzzalo, the new president of the University of Washington.

New York — Whether Sarah Bernhardt will ever be seen again on the American stage is greatly in doubt, owing to conflicting reports from France. The famous actress is said to have had trouble with her new wooden limb, or at least has found it hard to manage. On the other hand, she denies that this is the reason why she postponed her journey to America. Mme. Bernhardt was to have opened an engagement here today, but at the last moment cancelled her sailing.

Duluth, Minn. — Topics that will run the gamut from social problems to citizenship and highest education have been outlined in the program for the 21st annual convention of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs, which opened here today. Daily sessions will be held until Friday. Instead of the annual reception, the Duluth hostesses will introduce a federation luncheon on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Clarence L. Atwood of St. Cloud, president of the Minnesota Federation, will be the principal speaker at the big session tomorrow evening. Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, a former president of the General Federation, and Mrs. Fannie French Morse, superintendent of the Girls' Training School at Sank Center, will be the other speakers. Wednesday morning Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation, will be a speaker.

Los Angeles — To be acting mayor of a great city like Los Angeles, even for one day, is a big distinction. Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey, the city's one councilwoman, achieved this honor on Sept. 9th. Mayor Sebastian was called out of town, and so Mrs. Lindsey took office with full powers as the executive. This is said to be the first time a woman has acted as head of a municipality of the size of Los Angeles.

Boston — The heroism of American women in the afflicted, war-torn, foreign lands is every day deflected in some new avenue of accomplishment. One of the most interesting stories from Asia Minor is that of Miss Mary L. Graffam, principal of the girls' high school at Sivas, and a graduate of Columbia Teachers' College. Last winter, she accompanied a relief party to stem the typhus outbreak at Erzurum. Returning to her little school, she met another emergency. The American population was being deported. Finding that her pupils were thus forced to quit the town, she sought permission to go with them. She bought a spring wagon, and stocked it with medicines and food. After some weeks a message was received by the American Board of Foreign Missions that Miss Graffam had reached Malatia, some five days' ride from Sivas. She is administering relief and steadying the minds of the frightened people.

MRS. HARRISON BROWN URGED AS SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION HEAD

Peoria Woman Is Now Vice-President and Has Been Active in Suffrage Cause—Mrs. Trout Has Stated Definitely She Will Not Be a Candidate.

Mrs. Harrison M. Brown of Peoria, well known in suffrage circles in being urged by the Peoria Transcript as the logical successor to Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, as president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association. It seems to be definitely understood that Mrs. Trout will not be a candidate for re-election and thus there is considerable discussion as to a possible successor. The Transcript story is as follows:

"With the announcement from Chicago that Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout has positively declined to again become a candidate for the presidency of the men of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, Mrs. Harrison Monroe Brown, state vice president of this city, is directly in line and the strongest available possibility for this position.

"Mrs. Harrison M. Brown is the logical successor to Grace Wilbur Trout. The Peoria woman has fought the suffrage cause from its infancy in this state. She organized and has been the mainstay of the local society; she has been a lieutenant of Mrs. Trout in all legislative battles; as vice-president for the state; at Springfield and in Washington, she has lobbied with legislators for women's rights. Mrs. Brown has figured in all state conventions and the summer she was a leader in the national gathering in California. She is not only widely and popularly known in the state of Illinois, but is a figure in the national affairs of the suffrage party.

"In the convention to be held in this city on October 26-29, which will attract the attention of the suffragists of the United States, Mrs. Brown will probably have the support of the Trout faction for the leadership. This faction has never failed to control Illinois women politics, though it has had desperate brushes with factions representing other aspiring leaders.

"When interviewed yesterday evening, Mrs. H. M. Brown said: "If Mrs. Trout refuses to accept the office for another term I hope that some competent woman will be elected—one big enough, unselfish enough to carry on this great work." She declared that she has not determined whether to be one of the candidates for office or not, but that whoever does take up the responsibility of president will have her support and that she most sincerely hoped that they would take it up with a full realization of what an undertaking such an office means.

"Mrs. J. W. McGraw is before the public eye as another of the probable candidates and much discussion is being carried on all over the state of Illinois as to who will help make the election more exciting. Mrs. McGraw has served as legislative chairman of the association during the last session of the assembly and should she decide to run for the office she would have some supporters.

"One big question to come before the Peoria convention will be the revision of by-laws. A special train will carry over 150 from Chicago. Each ward civic league will have a delegate and the Political Equality and a hundred."

MANY ARE ATTENDING STATE FAIR FROM JACKSONVILLE

While the record show that not so many people are attending the state fair from Jacksonville, as was the case four or five years ago, yet a goodly number are availing themselves of the opportunity to go. The Wabash sold 400 tickets Wednesday and over 300 on Tuesday. The conditions of the roads the last two days has enabled many to make the trip via automobiles. Those who have seen to the fair, state that it is not so largely attended this year and the interest not so marked as on former times. The livestock, which was barred on account of the foot and mouth disease, has been greatly missed by many who are particularly interested in that department.

Among those who attended yesterday from here were Ensley Moore, Fred Sharp, Thomas Worthington, Morrison Worthington, Col. Geo. H. Hinton, Matthew L. Hildreth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson, John Minter, George Paul, Capt. John Schaub, Riggs Taylor, L. Goheen, C. Spruit, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woods.

URGES THAT CONVENTION BE HELD TO SET UP GOVERNMENT IN MEXICO

Garza Draws Gloomy Picture of What Would Happen in the Event of Recognition of Carranza by the United States.

Washington, Sept. 22.—A gloomy picture of what would happen in Mexico in the event of the recognition of Carranza by the United States and other American republics is drawn in a statement issued tonight by Roque Gonzales Garza, one time president of the convention government and now in Washington to forward the peace convention plan which the Villa and Zapata elements have accepted at the invitation of the Pan-American conferees. Garza urges that the convention be held to set up a provisional government in Mexico in spite of Carranza's refusal to participate and declares anarchy soon would follow recognition of Carranza. Describing at length the present military situation he denies Carranza's claim to control the greater part of Mexican territory and expresses the belief that Carranza continues to delay his removal to Mexico City because of fear that such a move would be followed by occupation of Vera Cruz by his enemies.

STATE PSYCHOLOGIST CHOSEN.

The State civil service commission has announced the results of an examination, conducted by it recently, to select a State psychologist. Harrison L. Harley, of the State college, Pennsylvania, stands at the top with a general average of 82.82, and has taken up his duties at the Lincoln State school and colony. This examination is a fair illustration of the methods, employed by the state civil service commission in selecting eligibles for professional, technical and responsible positions. It demonstrates that it is possible to secure, by competitive examination, eligibles to such positions.

The competition was open to the entire United States. The examiners were Dr. H. Douglas Singer, director of the State psychopathic institute, Kankakee, and Robert H. Gault, of the department of psychology at Northwestern university. Both men are practical because of wide and long acquaintance with public affairs and with the duties to be performed by this officer.

THREE TEAMS PRACTICE
AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

FOOTBALL IS SLOGAN AMONG ATHLETES ON HILL.

Coach Harmon Has Promise of Strong Veteran Team as Well as a Second Eleven—Other Schools Training Hard for Season.

With three full teams in the field Wednesday afternoon, Coach Harmon had a busy day on the Illinois college gridiron Wednesday. Football is certainly on the boom and every day some announcement makes stock in the eleven just a little higher. With practically a veteran team to work with and all in first class physical condition, there does not appear any reason why Illinois will not be heard from this season. The second team of the college will be strong and Coach Harmon expects to secure a number of games for them. Naturally this early in season it is impossible to get a line on the new men, but the material is promising and the men have the "pep" and that is what the coach covets.

At Other Colleges.

Football is also stirring in the other football camps of the minor leagues. At Millikin Coach Wann is whipping his men into line. Joe Catlin, the veteran Millikin athlete has been named Captain. Reeder, last year's captain and a powerful player will not be in school this year. John MacWherter one of the veteran players has reported. Holcomb of Centralia, Yockey of the Decatur High, are all out of football togs bidding for a position.

Over in the Wesleyan camp, Coach Muhl is rejoicing that "Muggs" Dunham has reported for practice and that Lukeman, formerly of the Illinois college team will be eligible to play this season. Another new man is Benjamin Garland, who attended Kalamazoo college last year. Applegate, the Atlantic recruit is showing good form at quarter back. Doocey, Smith, Hurst and Dunham are working for the half back positions. Eagleton, last year's center and all round guard has reported for duty.

Coach Harrison Russell of Illinois State Normal has a goodly number of recruits and several old men. He had two full teams in scrimmage yesterday and the coach thinks he has a team that will be heard from.

Coach Kennedy of William and Vashit, a team which Illinois does not meet this year has over thirty men out for practice. Among the veterans he has Capt. Westfall tackle back; Stormquist and Dexter halfbacks, Swanson and Burns, centers; McCaw, end.

Illinois will not meet Bradley this season. Coach Martin of the "Polys" had his entire backfield taken away this year by graduation. He has a strong line but is looking for backfield material. Old men back are Capt. Goodfellow, Lowes, McCaslin, Griffin, Williams and Fetzner.

Lombard Schedule.

Much interest is attached to the Lombard team as it is the first school Illinois will meet here on Oct. 9. Little is known of the team, but they have several veteran players in the lineup. Their schedule as well as of other schools follows:

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Samuel D. Lockwood—A Prince in Israel

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

It is a far cry to Poundridge, Westchester county, New York, and back to August 2, 1789. But in that place, and at that time, a child was born destined to become one of the most valuable citizens of Jacksonville, and of the state of Illinois.

Samuel Drake Lockwood was the name of this child. The Federal government was hardly established at the time of his birth and only the name of the Illinois country was then given to what afterwards became this imperial state.

It is questionable whether any other single man did so much as Judge Lockwood to mould and guide the early movement for good in the coming commonwealth which we today have the privilege of living in.

This man seemed to touch more things for good than almost any other of the pioneers who came here to build up and live.

Samuel D. Lockwood lost his father at the early age of ten years, and then was early thrown upon his own resources. His father or his mother, or both, must have been endowed with unusually good qualities of mind, of heart and of soul, to transmit such qualities to their son. The death of his father broke up the boy's hopes for a good education, but the qualities which make for goodness and greatness and influence were inborn to the child.

At the age of fourteen years the youthful Lockwood went to Waterford, N. Y., to live with his uncle, Francis Drake, a lawyer of that place, and remained in Mr. Drake's family as errand boy and law student until the year 1811, when Lockwood was licensed to practice law and opened an office in Batavia, New York. In 1812 he removed to Auburn, continuing his professional work there until the fall of 1818, part of the time holding the office of master in chancery.

Mr. Lockwood had become so broken in health by his work that his physician advised him to give up the law and to resort to an outdoor life. This suggestion, taken with the glowing accounts then prevailing, regarding the far west, induced the young lawyer to seek a home in Illinois. Consequently, on October 19, 1818, he started for this section in company with Wm. H. Brown and others.

They purchased a flatboat at Olean Point—now Olean, N. Y.—and floated down the Allegheny and the Ohio rivers on the boat, until they reached Shawneetown, this state, on December 15. Not such a swift trip it seems today.

After a few days spent in Shawneetown, Lockwood and Brown started in the still more primitive way of walking on foot to St. Louis, Mo., a distance of 120 miles.

Mr. Brown was appointed clerk of the United States district court the next year, and this broke up the law partnership which the young men had expected to form. Mr. Brown afterwards came to this state, and was a prominent citizen here.

Mr. Lockwood then went to Carmi, in White county, Illinois, to practice his profession.

Good luck, or deserved success seemed to follow these young men. Who can say that there was not a higher power guiding their footsteps and lives?

Lockwood was elected Attorney General of Illinois at the second session of the legislature held at Vandalia in 1821, and this demanding a change of residence, he went to Edwardsville, Madison county, to make his home.

Gov. Coles, in 1823, very unexpectedly to Lockwood, made him secretary of state, by nomination. Lockwood had hardly gotten into this office when President Monroe appointed him Receiver of Public Monies at the Land Office in Edwardsville. This carried a better salary, paid in gold, instead of the depreciated currency, so Mr. Lockwood resigned the secretaryship and accepted the Federal office.

Offices seemed to fly at the young New Yorker, for, at the session of the legislature of 1824-5, against his expressed wishes, Lockwood was elected a judge of the Supreme Court of the state. He held this position until the constitution of 1848 demanded the election of judges by the people.

In 1826 Judge Lockwood married Miss Mary Virginia Nash, of St. Louis county, Mo., a lady highly spoken of, who survived him a few years.

In 1829 he removed from Edwardsville to Jacksonville, and this was his home until 1853, when he again removed, to Batavia, Kane county, this state. His residence here was the brick house last occupied by Mr. Gates Strawn, at the southwest corner of College avenue and Church street.

Office still pursued him after coming here, and Judge Lockwood was sent to the convention of 1848, and was chairman of the committee on executive.

To Judge Lockwood was due the recognition of God in the preamble to the Constitution of the state adopted by that convention. The people ratified the adoption of the constitution.

In 1851 the legislature appointed Judge Lockwood Trustee of the Land department of the Illinois Central railroad, a place he held until his death.

Judge Lockwood was not an office seeker, and yet he was kept in position of high office and trust for over fifty years.

He was opposed to Human Slavery and was one of the strongest opponents of that system in the north for its adoption in the state. He was not an active partisan, but was a Whig until 1853, when he became a Republican, helping to form that party.

Gov. Ford, in his valuable history of Illinois—Ford being a Democrat—referred as follows to Judge Lockwood: "In 1820 was fought the first and last duel in Illinois. One of the parties fell, mortally wounded, the other was tried and convicted of murder, and suffered the extreme penalty of the law by hanging. Judge Lockwood was then the attorney of the state, and prosecuted. To his talents and success as a prosecutor, the people are indebted for the early precedent and example, which did more than is generally known to prevent the barbarous practice of duelling from being introduced into the state."

"In 1826-7, Judges Lockwood and Smith presented to the Legislature a revision of the laws of the state. Prepared by them in accordance with the instructions of the preceding legislature, and these laws have been standard laws in every revision since."

In his chapter on a somewhat bitter controversy that occurred between the executive and judicial departments of the state, in 1849, Gov. Ford says: "It is due to truth to say that Judges Wilson and Lockwood were in every respect amiable and accomplished gentlemen, and commanded the esteem and respect of all good men for the purity of their conduct and their probity in official station."

"Judge Lockwood was an excellent lawyer, a man of sound judgment, and his life indicated uncommon purity, modesty and intelligence, together with energy and strong determination. His face was the true index of his character."

Such words from a political opponent in days of intense partisanship were creditable alike to Governor and to Judge.

Judge Lockwood's services were connected with an educational, benevolent and religious interests of the state.

Eames says: "As early, as his residence in Auburn, he was so identified with the religious interests here as to be appointed one of the trustees of the Presbyterian church."

"In 1815 the Cayuga County Bible society was formed, the first in New York state, two years before the American Bible society, and Judge Lockwood was one of the originators and directors of the society. Of the twenty-four first directors of the society he was the last survivor."

"With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation."

Eames said: "His influence and liberality were extended toward promoting the scheme which resulted in the establishment of Illinois College, and it is believed that without his labors in Jacksonville's behalf, the institution would have been located elsewhere—in all probability in Southern Illinois. He advised those interested with him in the matter not to decide until they had seen some of the beautiful country around Jacksonville, and on this advice, Revs. Thos. Lippincott and Jno. M. Ellis were sent out to spy out country, Judge Lockwood furnishing a horse, and paying the travelling expenses of one of the party. The result was the location of the College on the tract of land he had a few months before secured for his own homestead."

Judge Lockwood was a Trustee of the College until 1868, when failing health compelled his resignation. He was also a friend and promoter of Jacksonville Female Academy, saving it, at one time, from suspension. He was an honored member of its first Board of Trustees and continued in that connection until his death.

Judge Lockwood took an active part in the establishment of our three State institutions, the first in the State, and was on the first board of trustees of each.

"In every place where he resided in the state his influence was indeed a strong, steady and reliable power for good, always on the side of freedom, temperance, morality, and the main spring of them all—Christianity."

In view of his influence and generosity toward the College, it is altogether fitting that the residence of the president of the College should be upon a street named Lockwood Place.

Judge Lockwood as he appears in a portraiture of him, was a distinguished and most attractive looking gentleman of the old school."

Truly Illinois and Jacksonville should be thankful for what they enjoyed of the life of this good and great man—a life which took on higher place, April 23, 1874.

HAVE SECURED CONTRACTS.

Ballard and Johnson, Wednesday let the contract for furnishing the fixtures for the office of the new Douglas Hotel to the Crawford company. The contract for furnishing the fixtures for the restaurant was given to the Cook Planing Mill company. The local firms had to bid against a number of outside firms but were successful. Messrs. Ballard and Johnson believe in patronizing home industry and would have given the contracts to local firms even if their price had been higher. However, they were both low bidders and this course was not necessary.

EARL WYLDER WRITES ABOUT LIFE IN ARIZONA COUNTRY

Former Illinois College Student
Finds Work in the Forestry Service Very Interesting—Home is 125 Miles from Any Railroad.

One of the interesting letters read by Dr. Rammelkamp in chapel at Illinois College Wednesday morning was from Earl Wylder, in the U. S. forestry service in Arizona and some extracts are published.

Greer, Arizona.

Dear Dr. Rammelkamp:—
I was very much pleased to receive a copy of the Illinois College Bulletin containing the Annual Statement. I have been very busy for some time and until yesterday was unable to read it but I assure you it filled me with pride when I did read it. Pride because "Old Illinois" is my Alma Mater and also because she has been making such remarkable progress in the direction that I believe all the Alumni want to see her progress. Personally I hope that Illinois will always remain a small college, of high standard and excellent quality, and the trend of the past ten years has been in just that direction.

It doesn't seem that it has been ten years since you took the chair as President. It is plain to me now as if it was yesterday morning that you made your talk to us in Chapel and then turned us loose to celebrate the occasion with fitting ceremonies. And the surprising part of it to me is that I feel as if I would take as much delight today in helping pull a wagon and in shouting cheers for Dr. Rammelkamp as I did that morning.

I'm glad to note that college spirit is still growing; it seems to me that it has never been at very low ebb since I have known anything about the school, and many are the times that I have wished I could be there to join in the celebrations. It is indeed a small school but a glorious one. I do wish that it was possible, as you suggest, to be able to pay better salaries to instructors, and I am very glad to know that there are still several on the faculty that have remained here in spite of offers from other schools.

Our home here is in the heart of the White Mountains of Arizona, the most beautiful country in the state. We are at an elevation of 8500 feet and there is a point on my district that is 11,492 feet above sea level. We went up there, the first time this year, on June 7 and we had to lead our horses most of the way over snow that was from four to twenty-two feet deep. It was certainly a lovely trip. Mrs. Wylder rides with me all the time and we do indeed enjoy this life and the country.

I expect that we would never be satisfied living in civilized country again. We live 125 miles from the nearest R. R. point and haven't seen a train since last October when we went up to the Grand Canyon. But we have a telephone in the house and a fine big fire place and running water so we think that we have several things that compensate for the things we miss by not living in town.

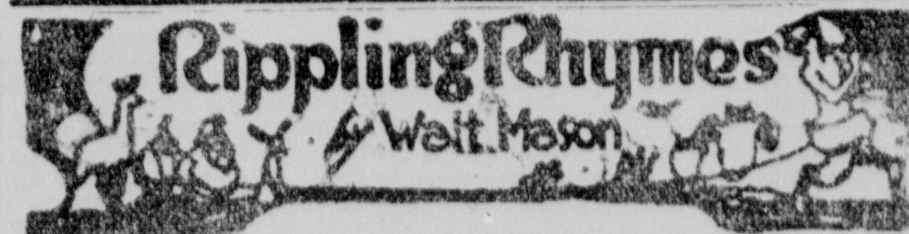

I smiled last year when I read in some of the college affairs in the Journal I believe it was, about one of the boys having to ride 80 miles horseback with his wife to get a train on his way to Commencement for we had just finished a ride of 300 miles horse back being only 10 days on the road and only eight days actual travel, over some of the most wonderful country that one could ask to see.

The Little Colorado River runs through my pasture, it is the best trout stream in Arizona and we have now in the refrigerator 6 nice trout that average 1 pound each. One morning last spring there were six wild turkeys in my field not more than 200 yards from the house. It is indeed a wonderful life and we enjoy it more every day I believe. If you should happen to motor to the fair this summer you would pass within 15 miles of our house if you take the road and 4 miles if you take the other ocean to ocean high way, and we would be more than delighted to have you drive over and see us.

I feel that under your guidance, "Old Illinois" will reach the place that you and the Alumni want for her. I wish I could tell you just how certain I feel of her success as long as you are at the helm.

Very sincerely,
T. Earl Wylder.

Miss Mary Wright and nephew, James Burch, are visiting Mrs. Arthur Henderson on South Diamond street.

TALKING TOO MUCH

The man who's always talking will some day talk too much, and with disaster shocking he then will be in touch. You jabber like a lawyer about the blooming war; is that what your employer is paying money for? You talk a lot of Bryan, who jumped the ship of state, when you should be a-tryin' to make your record straight. Great truths you are parading, and ologies profound, when you should be out spading the fertile garden ground. You talk about the neighbors, and charge them up with crime; are there no wiser labors to occupy your mind? Go, mark the down-and-outers, who throng the booby hutch; the most of them were spouters, who always talked too much. Go, watch the bums who sidle around with empty maws; they let their arms hang idle, and labored with their jaws.

The man who still discourses when there is naught to say, until his larynx hoarse is, will get the bounce some day. The boss will bar and ban him, and brand him as a chump, and shoo and fire and can him, and send him to the dump.

Rev. William R. Butcher, pastor of the Joy Prairie Congregational church, died Monday evening at the Protestant hospital in Chicago. The deceased had not been in good health for a year or more, his trouble being pernicious anemia. About a month ago he went to Three Rivers, Wisconsin, to consult an eminent physician there and for a time seemed to improve but later began to grow worse. Some of his blood was sent to Chicago for examination and the physician examining it said the patient had but a short time to live and had better hasten home. His daughter, Miss Irene Butcher, was with him and they started for home but Mr. Butcher grew so much worse in Chicago that a physician advised that he go to a hospital. There the end came quickly.

Mr. Butcher was about 73 years of age and had been in the ministry for some years. He had charge of the Congregational church at Chandler, Illinois for eight years; the Congregational church in Woodhouse for several years and a few years ago he went to the Congregational church at Joy Prairie and was its pastor at the time of his death.

One son, William, has been dead about a year. He is survived by his wife, one son, Harry, who lives in Gulfport, Miss., one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Close, is the wife of a business man living in India; Misses Zai and Irene are at home though the former has studied music and taught in Massachusetts. Mr. Butcher was a man of a lovable character and was popular with all who knew him. He was a consecrated Christian pastor, earnest in presenting the truth and anxious to do all the good possible. In his family he was affectionate and devoted to the welfare of his dear ones and he will be missed in many ways.

The funeral will be conducted at Galesburg where interment will take place.

son Doubles, Sending Two Runs Home for the Giants—Benton itches in Fine Form.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—New York de-son doubled sending two runs home for the Giants. Benton worked in fine form and that lead was enough for the visitors to win.

RED SOX RECOVER LOST GROUND BY WINNING DOUBLE HEADER

Boston Americans Are Now Four and One Half Games Ahead of the Detroit Tigers—Applications for Reservations Already Start to Pour Into Boston Office.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Boston Americans who now are making their plans for participation in the World Series today recovered the ground they lost yesterday by winning a double header from Cleveland. The Red Sox tonight are four and one half games ahead of the Detroit Tigers, who defeated Connie Mack's Philadelphia recruits. With only twelve games remaining on their schedule the Red Sox have only to win seven even should the Tigers fail to lose one of their ten games.
Applications for reservations already have started to pour into the Boston club's office.

Neither Philadelphia nor Boston in the National League played today.
Brooklyn played a double header, winning and losing. The standing thus remains virtually unchanged, the Phillies leading by five and one half games over Boston and six over Brooklyn.

BLUFFS WILL HAVE FAST TEAM.

Black, G. Jamieson, R. Wolford, C.

Walter Nortrup has been engaged as manager and coach and is busy drawing up a schedule with fast teams in the vicinity and any fast amateur bunch can get a date by writing to him.

After being in the rear for six innings Detroit jumped on the Philadelphia pitchers in the seventh and made ten runs making the final score 13 to 9 in the Tigers favor.
Detroit used four pitchers and Phila-

RED SOX TAKE DOUBLE HEADER FROM CLEVELAND

WIN FIRST GAME BY EIGHTH INNING RALLY.

Mitchell Is Hit Safely Four Times for

of the Second Contest, Giving Boston a Safe Lead.

Boston, Sept. 22.—The Red Sox
winning a double header from Cleveland. The Sox won the first game by a lead of two runs in the first game, with Jones pitching strongly up to the eighth inning.
Then a pass to Scott and Speaker's double caused Jones' mismanagement and Klepper, who followed was hit for the three runs. After Cleveland had batted Foster for a run in the first inning of the second game, the Boston pitcher tightened and held them without further score. Mitchell struck out five men consecutively in the second and third innings, but in the fourth was hit safely four times for as many runs. Score:

'MORNING GLANCES' (By Gosh)

New York defeated Chicago yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. New York won the game in the third when Lavender passed Grant and Burns and Robertson followed with a double. They added another for good measure in the eighth. Benton held Chicago safe all the way.

The Boston Rex Sox defeated Cleveland twice yesterday. The first game was won by a score of 3 to 2 and the second by a score of 7 to 1.
The Boston pitchers held Cleveland helpless and were accorded fine support.

Washington trimmed the slipping White Sox again yesterday by a score of 2 to 0. Gallia was wild but could not be hit effectively and in the sixth after two men were on and none out Ayres took his place and stopped the Sox from scoring.
The Sox got only four hits.

The Washington victory yesterday put the Senators right on the heels of the White Sox for third place. The White Sox now have a lead of only nine points and if they lose another game will be lucky to get back home in third place as their pitchers do not seem to be going well.

Buffalo beat Pittsburgh yesterday by a score of 7 to 0. Anderson was very effective, holding Pittsburgh to five hits while Barger was knocked down the rubber in the third inning.

The Yanks lost both ends of a double header to St. Louis yesterday. In the first game McCabe won his third straight victory, beating the Yanks by a score of 4 to 2. In the second game Tillman, another youngster, pitched and was assisted by Weisman. The score of the second game was 3 to 1.

St. Louis defeated Baltimore both games of a double header yesterday.
In the first game Davenport allowed Baltimore but three hits and the score was 4 to 2. In the second Crandall allowed eight hits but they were so widely scattered that Baltimore did not score while St. Louis made eight runs.

Modern Dentistry

Our crown and bridge work is the only method in dental science that is permanent and which perfectly equalize the strain of mastication. It is the only possible method which permits the fullest enjoyment while eating, because the functions of the whole mouth can be exercised. This is impossible in the old-fashioned plate. These teeth look like your own teeth, feel like your own teeth and to all intents and purposes, are your own teeth; and with moderate care will last a lifetime. Only gold and porcelain are used in their construction; but, notwithstanding, the cost is comparatively low. Estimates free.

A TRAGIC RETREAT

When the Afghans Lured the British Into the Jaws of Death.

THE EVACUATION OF KABUL.

Of 16,000 Persons Who Left the City Under Pledge of Safety Only One Man, Except a Few Prisoners Taken, Escaped Massacre.

In this wondrous day of wire and wireless we learn, half across the world, the events of the day almost instantaneously, and the very elements carry abroad the news. It is more than romance; it is miracle, but a miracle that may banish forever from the pages of the future historian and romance one of the most dramatic figures of the past—the messenger bringing first news from the battlefield.

Long even before Phidippides of Marathon ran to Athens from the immortal battlefield, cried "Victory!" and fell dead the messenger held a place in myth and chronicle that he has maintained for centuries. Sometimes he is merely the swiftest rider or runner, sometimes a hero of the fight, chosen as an honor to bear glad tidings; sometimes a hard pressed refugee, sometimes even a lone survivor.

Lady Elizabeth Thompson Butler, the distinguished woman painter of wartime scenes, of which "The Roll Call" is most famous, once illustrated in a less known painting one of the most tragic episodes in the history of modern England—the arrival of Dr. William Brydon at Jalalabad, Jan. 13, 1842. Her terrible little picture shows the young Scotch surgeon, dazed, desperate, exhausted, clinging half-conscious to his weary horse as the walls of the city loom in sight.

He had come from Kabul, through the mountains, in midwinter, one of a retreating army of British and native troops, accompanied by swarms of attendants and camp followers. With them at first were also nine Englishwomen, wives of officers, including Florentia, Lady Sale, wife of Sir Robert Sale, the commander at Jalalabad, and his daughter. There were also fourteen children. A long, intricate and hideous series of blunders, treacheries and murders had brought the tremendously outnumbered British in Kabul to the point where evacuation of the city and acceptance of a promised safe conduct to Jalalabad seemed to their leaders the best that could be hoped for, and the retreat began.

But the Afghans did not keep their word, and soon there were no leaders. Before the march was half over many were slain and conditions were so hopeless that the others yielded to a proposal to surrender the commanding general himself, General Elphinstone, together with the women and children, into the care of the Afghan chief, Akbar Khan, as hostages, but not until the Kurd Kabul was passed.

The gorge of the Kurd Kabul is a five mile ravine between high mountains, so narrow, lofty and grim that in winter the sun scarcely reaches its depths. That January it was deep in snow, the rocks were glazed with ice, and upon every mountain slope, in every crevasse, behind every bowlder, lurked the fanatic Afghan tribesmen, with their long guns and long knives. Weary, crowded, half crippled by frost, the confused and formless masses struggling through the gloomy canyon soon lost all semblance of an army, as the slaughter soon lost all semblance of battle. It became simply the massacre of a rabble, and the snow grew red.

"Three thousand men," says the historian Sir J. W. Kaye, "fell under the fire of the enemy or dropped down paralyzed and exhausted to be slaughtered by Afghan knives. And amid these fearful scenes of carnage, through a shower of matchlock balls, rode English ladies on horseback or in camel panniers, sometimes vainly endeavoring to keep their children beneath their eyes and then losing them in the confusion and bewilderment of the desolating march."

After the general became a captive with the women the rout and slaughter increased in horror. The Jugdulluk pass, succeeded the Kurd Kabul; a dark, steep, winding track ascending high among frowning crags, and barricaded at its narrowest point. It was a trap. The fugitives were caught beyond escape. A mere handful emerged alive.

Within sixteen miles of Jalalabad only six of these remained. Before those sixteen miles were covered five of the six had been killed by stragglers marauders.

Dr. Brydon alone, one man out of 16,000, reached the goal and bore the awful news.

Later, when England awoke and avenged, the women and children and a few prisoners were rescued. Dr. Brydon himself lived to share and survive the famous siege of Lucknow, another terrible episode in his country's history, but one as honorable and inspiring as the retreat from Kabul was humiliating and disastrous.—Youth's Companion.

Concentrated Sun Rays.
Archimedes once arranged a number of mirrors so as to bring the rays of the sun to a point called a focus, which means a hearth. The heat thus gathered together from the sunshine is said to have been sufficient to set fire to the Roman ships, which were besieging the harbor of Syracuse.

He who feasts every day, feasts no day.—C. Simmons.

Egg Substitutes.

When eggs are high one hesitates to make white cake, especially if she does not care to use up the yolks for something else. It is not necessary to use egg whites at all. Simply use gelatine instead. One tablespoonful of the dry gelatine equals three eggs. Dissolve it in cold water and add enough boiling water to make a cupful. Beat with an egg beater and add to cake.

How to Treat the Sting.

To alleviate the stings given by summer insects first remove the sting with a needle if it is left in the wound; then press a key over the stung part tightly, thus forcing out the poison. Wash the wound and apply a liniment made of finely scraped chalk and olive oil mixed together to the thickness of cream.

Brass Cleaning.

For brasses that have become tarnished an excellent method of cleaning is to use equal parts of vinegar and salt. Smear thoroughly with the mixture, then let it dry on, and when thoroughly dry wash it off with hot, soapy water and polish dry with a soft flannel cloth.

To Clean White Furniture.

To clean the fashionable white painted furniture, which often becomes spotted and dirty in appearance, use clear turpentine on a soft cloth. This will remove all of the dirt without taking off the gloss, as soap and water always are sure to do.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE BEGINS WORK OF EIGHTY SEVENTH YEAR

Enrollment of Students the Largest in the History of the Institution — President Rammelkamp and Dr. Post Made Addresses.

Illinois college has begun its 87th year of usefulness under the most favorable auspices. At the Jones memorial building yesterday an inspiring sight greeted Pres. Rammelkamp whose earnest efforts have had such a grand fruition.

The president stated that the college was opened with the largest number of students in its history. Although the registration is not complete, 158 students are at present registered in the college department. The freshmen class will number about seventy, the total registration in all departments being at present about 300. Since the registration in the conservatory is far from being complete, the total for the year will probably approach 400.

Elderly friends of the college have often heard Dr. Sturtevant tell of his beginning in 1829 with nine students in the modest apartments and today many are enjoying the fruits of the labors of the grand men who laid the foundations of the college so well, so deep and so widely.

After devotional exercises, Prof. Beebe favored the audience with a collo solo and was rewarded with a rapturous encore to which he graciously responded. He gives promise of great popularity and excellence in his department in the conservatory.

President Rammelkamp then said in brief:

"It is with sincere pleasure that I tender a cordial greeting to all friends and students both new and old. It is indeed a pleasure to see so many new faces here and we hope all will find everything pleasant and profitable. There will be but few changes in the faculty. Mr. Irving Potter will have charge of the mathematical department and Mr. C. H. Given of Whipple academy. Mr. Paul Beebe, recently from Berlin, Germany, Miss Ruth Duncan will have places on the conservatory faculty; Miss Eunice T. Grey will have charge of the Academy hall. It is not possible to mention all the names of the new students but I bid you all welcome and hope their good qualities will be fully equal to quality."

"The college begins the year with the largest enrollment in its history. It is interesting to see so many from certain localities. Students from Granite City have annexed the college dormitory; five come from Belleville; the largest number from any place except Jacksonville, came last year from Petersburg, and this year 19 are from Jacksonville. Some improvements have been made in the working apparatus of the college."

lege. Additions have been made to the furnishing of the biological department; the organ has been adorned through the generosity of the president of the board of trustees, Honorable Andrew Russell, who was unable to be with us today but sent a telegram of regrets and congratulations. A fine new and superior stereopticon has been given to the college.

"The beginning of the year is a good time for plans and resolutions. The choice of a course will somewhat indicate the character of a student. Do not choose that which is easiest though we have no really easy courses here.

"There are many by products in an education; the friendships you form; the activities in a college life; the social surroundings and advantages; the college spirit. A college student should be noted for four things: Loyalty to parents who have in many cases made great sacrifices for education of their children. This would seem useless and yet I actually met a young man years ago whose mother visited him at the college and he seemed really ashamed of her and was with her as little as possible. Be loyal to the college. The best asset a college has is the loyalty of its students, alumni and past students and it is pleasant to know that this college is so well off in that respect. I have here a number of letters some from students to come and some from former students and they are full of loyalty to the institution. They are from widely scattered localities."

Several of them were read by the president.

"I hope all will be included with a true spirit of honor and loyalty without fault finding and criticism. Be loyal to your country. The students and faculties of the institution in the past have done nobly for their native land, both in a civil and a military capacity. There was no graduating class in 1863 as all had gone to the war. The call for sacrifice may come to us and you will have unusual responsibilities resting upon you. Great questions and important problems are constantly looming up, not only economic but moral. There is a great effort in this country and Europe to manufacture public opinion. Will you let Bryan or Roosevelt do your thinking for you? or will you do your thinking yourselves?"

Beloyal to your convictions. Follow the precept of the great apostle, "Prove all things; hold fast to that which is good." Test all things carefully; seek the best and hold to it."

Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., followed with a fine address. It is impracticable to present it in full but it was replete with epigrams, some of which are presented:

In the final judgment a man will be rewarded not for what he has accomplished but for what he attempted.

It is impossible to tell where the human and divine agencies meet.

Man is made a little lower than the angels as it is erroneously translated, but than God.

You have within you the candle of the spirit but you must light it yourself. Do it with divine help.

The man who serves best is royal.

You can be kingly in humility; you can be small in arrogance.

Your kingdom is coterminous with your vision.

Education is to show you how to live completely.

The first four verses of the gospel of John contain the substance of all that philosophy, science, faith and theology stand for in this world.

Take for your guide the greatest and only true light, Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Wilson favored the audience with a solo beautifully rendered and was loudly applauded.

The benediction by Rev. Percy Stephens ended the program.

LEAVE FOR THE EAST.

Dr. and Mrs. Patrick Downing, who have been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Howe, expected to leave today for New Milford, Conn., where Dr. Downing will be at the head of the Latin and Greek department of the Canterbury school. Dr. Downing is a former teacher in Routt College.

THE TRAMP STEAMER

A tramp steamer is the only kind of a tramp for which a use has been found so far. Like other tramps, it has a home, but never goes there. But unlike other tramps it is always working and its nose is seldom painted. Tramp steamers do not have gilt and white cabins and are not infested with millionaires and chorus girls returning from Europe on their frugal vacations. They are plain, awkward boats, as fat in the bows as a canal boat, and if a vacuum cleaner were turned on them after a trip, they would pan out more dirt than a Vermont farm has. But in their homely, different way they carry the ocean commerce of the world and enable the frugal housewife of America to buy English needles, because they come a cent a pound cheaper. The ocean liner travels back and forth between two ports, until she has worn a furrow in the map. But the tramp steamer plows slowly through the water from Liverpool to Melbourne and thence to Rotoronga, Shanghai, Unalaska, Papecte, Reykjavik, Delagoa, Matanzas, Terra del Fuego, Tsuruga, Lihau and other freckles on the map, which can only be found by a good geography scholar. Tramp steamers have carried enough wheat to Europe during the last year to feed 50,000,000 people. That shows the foolishness of their name. If they were real tramps they would not be carrying food. They would be pandering it from port to port.

POOR TIME AVERAGE IS MADE AT COLUMBUS.

Favorites in Both Sections of the 2:15 Trot Are Overthrown—General Todd Wins Horse Review Futurity in Straight Heats.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Out of the seventeen heats of competitive Grand Circuit racing this afternoon there was a poor time average and few close finishes but overthrows of the favorites in both sections of the 2:15 trot. The first division of this race went to Roy Miller, second choice with Favored Parcliff outside the money.

Rose D, an Indiana half-miler, was back in the first heat of the second division but she easily showed the way home in each of the next three miles. Fair Virginia and King Charles were in most favor.

General Todd, the champion three year old pacing colt, won the Horse Review futurity in straight heats but was crowded in the second by Miss Harris M, so that he came within half a second of his record.

After the race it was announced that Stoughton A. Fletcher had purchased Miss Harris M, from Eugene Mettler. Both parties to the deal live in Indianapolis.

Not since 1905 has a Hotel Hartman stake for 2:13 pacers been raced in such slow time as that made by Hal Boy. The third heat was best and it was in 2:07. The winner was the favorite. Well backed, Judge Ormonde failed to get up the speed needed to force Hal Boy out.

In the special trot Margaret Druen won as she pleased. The contest in this event was for second place and Star Winter got it from Joan by brushing best in the last quarter of the final heat.

Rheumatism Easily Relieved By Cleansing the Blood

S. S. S. Gives Quick Relief by Toning Up the Blood

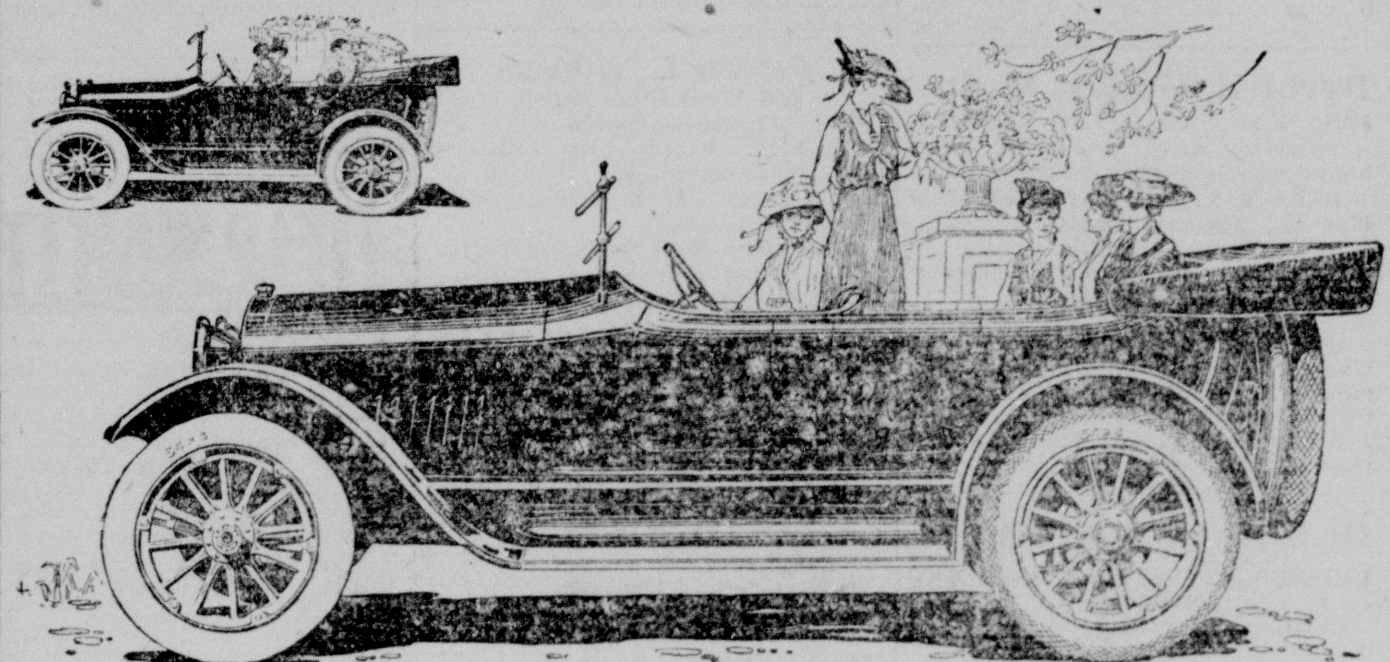

Yes, but how? A natural question. The answer is that you must cleanse your blood by stimulating it to healthy, vigorous action, so that it will throw off the germs and impurities that cause Rheumatism. The action of the wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S. is to practically renew the life blood, give it vigor, stimulate the flow making it throw out the germs and the poison impurities. The excruciating pains of Rheumatism, whether it is the shooting, stabbing Sciatica, the gripping agony of muscular Rheumatism, or aching arms and legs that break up sleep will be entirely relieved by S. S. S. Don't use nostrums and drugs. Take the blood bath—Nature's blood tonic, S. S. S. Get it at any druggist, but insist upon S. S. S. Let us tell you about blood diseases. Send for booklet "What the Mirror Tells," or if yours is a peculiar case, write S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., but begin treatment at once.

Coffee Talk, No. 3

America's Cup, America's Cup, America's Cup, America's Cup, America's Cup, America's Cup

I Use Six Different Varieties of Coffee to Secure the Right Blend for

A COFFEE bean is like a honey comb—it has little cells filled with oil which is the essence of coffee. Aging it "in the green" (before roasting) changes this oil from tannic acid to a rich, mellow, smooth flavor. No coffee used is less than two years old.

ANYONE can easily see what green coffee will do by placing a few grains of it in a vessel with the white of an egg. The egg will soon assume a green grassy appearance.

INVARIABLY use properly cured coffees for the blending of "America's Cup"; blending the oils of all the varieties so they produce a most delicious flavor.

GREAT changes have been made in the growing of coffee by using the Luther Burbank methods of propagation. Transplanting Java coffee produced varieties of Bogata and transplanting Mocha coffees produced Bourbons—more plentiful and of better quality than the originals.

BY COMBINING these with other high quality coffees and eliminating the rank Rio kinds I have produced a perfect family coffee.

ILLINOIS CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY CLOSING SESSIONS TONIGHT

"Peace" is Subject of Maryland Pastor in Address Last Night—Report of State Bible School Superintendent Read by Mr. DePew.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 22.—Peace was the subject discussed by Rev. Peter Ainslie, of Baltimore, Md., at tonight's session of the convention of Illinois Christian Missionary Society. Mr. Ainslie was a delegate to the peace conference in Switzerland, when the European war broke out.

Professor Walter Athearn, of Drake University, Des Moines, also made an address at the night session. The convention closes tomorrow night.

The Rev. S. J. Corey of Cincinnati, who spoke in Jacksonville a year or more ago for the "Men and Millions" team, is on the Thursday forenoon program for the missionary address. Other addresses at the same session are "God's Supreme Law" by N. S. Haynes of Decatur; "Every Member Canvass" by R. H. Newton, Atlanta; "Gospel Team Work" by W. D. Endress, Quincy. An educational symposium under direction of H. O. Pritchard, followed by a business session and sight-seeing under auspices of the Bloomington Commercial club, form the afternoon program.

In the annual report of C. L. DePew, state Bible school superintendent of the Illinois Christian Missionary society, read before the convention Wednesday forenoon, total expenses of the office were shown to be $2,580.85. During the year Mr. DePew spent 298 days in service, visited 151 places and made 224 addresses. For over two months of the past missionary year, Mr. DePew served as field secretary for the congress of church efficiency at Hammond, Ind. DO YOU FEEL HEADACHY? LOOK TO YOUR STOMACH

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Coover & Shreve, the popular druggists, are selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine had been successful as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to Coover & Shreve in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And they stand ready to do so without any question.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while complete cure often follows rapidly.

These days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health, and Mi-o-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.—Adv.

AGAINST "SPOONEY" AUTOMOBILE DRIVERS

Police May Arrest Young Men Who Make One Arm Do Work of Two.

Decatur police have started a campaign against "one-arm" automobile driving, says the Review. It is not directed against automobilists who have only one arm, but against those who have two arms and let one of them "go to waist."

One-arm driving was all right in the old days of the horse and buggy. Any young man who knew enough to say "whoa" and "giddyap" could safely negotiate the country roads while holding the lines with one hand and clasping the fair form of his best girl with the other. But in these days of gasoline propulsion the county authorities believe the combination of spooning and speeding is a dangerous one.

In the opinion of the police many automobile accidents in the county have been due to this "one-arm" system of driving.

Officer Joe Clark, who, heretofore, has been only a speed spotter, has been instructed to keep a sharp lookout for spoony drivers who try to make one hand do the work of two.

CITY TO RESUME CASH PAYMENTS FOR ACCOUNTS

Financial Arrangements in Force Before Special Election Was Called to Be Again Effective.

The city is very soon to resume the payment of bills in accordance with the arrangement which was in force prior to the time that notice was given that an election would be called to consider the question of a change in the government plan. Mayor H. J. Rodgers said yesterday that the same financial arrangements as before would now prevail and that it would thus be possible for the people who work for the city and others who have accounts to get their money. Persons having bills will file them with W. F. Widmayer, commissioner of accounts and finances, and after the bills have been approved the full amount of the indebtedness shown will be paid.

The arrangement thus made to finance the city means a great deal both to city officials and to citizens generally. It is much easier to conduct the city's business with cash available for meeting obligations and it is possible also in this way to conduct affairs on a more economical basis. Firms away from Jacksonville with which the city does business are always willing to give a lower price and an additional discount, of which they know that cash is forthcoming, and with local people the same rule applies. A person who is to receive the money at once can afford to make a better price than if it is necessary to wait twelve or fifteen months for the money.

Just arrived the VERY LATEST IN HATS, black velvet, sailors, tricorn and military turbans, trimmed to please you. Low prices. FLOR-ETH COMPANY.

FISKE O'HARA COMING.

"Kilkenny" is the title of Fiske O'Hara's new play, in which this splendid actor will shortly be seen in this city. The play is from the pen of Augustus Pitou, Sr., who furnished Mr. O'Hara with "In Old Dublin" and "Jack's Romance," the vehicles he used during the past two seasons. The new play is said to be filled with dramatic incidents, Irish witticisms, and all the ingredients that go to make up a delightful evening's entertainment. Mr. O'Hara has been surrounded with a cast of unusual excellence, and a production which admirably depicts the beauty of Ireland in the early part of the nineteenth century. Of course he will be heard in a number of new songs. The attraction is booked for Oct. 5th.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. JOHN JOAQUIN.

Relatives and Friends Joined in Celebrating Anniversary.

The regard in which Mrs. John N. Joaquin is held by her friends and relatives was admirably attested last evening when some fifty joined in celebrating the lady's 59th birthday. She and her husband were invited to supper at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. G. Lynn in Spaulding Place and she went innocently supposing none but the members of the two families would be present and none were until about eight an ominous knock at the door indicated the presence of some persistent would-be caller and investigation disclosed the presence of some fifty or more relatives and friends who had come to remind the worthy lady that she was 59 years old and they had come to help celebrate the happy event.

Her surprise was complete and great and for some time she was unable to say a word but she gradually took in the situation and surrendered at discretion and all proceeded to have a good time. Vocal and instrumental music, games and sociability occupied the hours of the evening most happily while delicious refreshments added their part to the pleasure of the occasion. A number of handsome and useful presents also attested the esteem in which the recipient is held by a host of friends.

A birthday cake adorned with 59 candles was the work of Mrs. Joaquin's daughter, Mrs. Lynn, and was delicious and much enjoyed by all present. The entire evening was happily spent by all and Mrs. Joaquin went home well convinced of the fact that she has a host of friends who esteem her not a little.

MYSTERY SHROUDS RICH MAN'S FATE ON FARM.

Beardstown, Ill., Sept. 22—What appeared to be a murder mystery at the outset confronted the county authorities in the case of Fred Koch, aged 65 years, found dead this morning beside his lonely farm house on the Boulevard Road six miles south of this city. The man had not been seen for five days.

Horses this morning, running loose in a field of corn, caused Edward Butler, a neighbor, to hurry to the Koch farm house to advise him of their depredations. Unable to rouse anyone in the house, Butler made a tour of the grounds. He found the body, evidently dead for some days, lying in an unfrequented corner of the yard back of the house.

Koch was reputed to be wealthy, and for twenty-five years had farmed the large tract of land where he lived alone, a widower.

DISCUSS WHEAT GRAIN WHEAT PROPOSITION.

A number of local men who are interested in the location of the factory here for the manufacture of whole grain wheat will hold a meeting in the Ayers National Bank Saturday afternoon. They extend an invitation to all farmers to attend this meeting and learn of the possibilities in such an enterprise. In addition to the whole grain wheat proposition the matter of a canning factory will also be discussed. It is pointed out that the past summer there has been a large amount of vegetables wasted which might have been canned and placed on the market. The proposition appeals strongly to a number of local men who have considered it.
